

Caffe Vita Greenwood Seattle, WA

Completed in 2010, the project included a change of use and a complete remodel of the existing space. The result is a beautiful space full of light that opens onto the street and is always full of people. This location is the sixth Caffe Vita to be built in Seattle.

